AUSTRALIAN PURSUIT RACE IS FEATURE

Wright and Lawrence Ride Five Miles in Hard Grind at Palace.

cycle races Friday night was the Australian pursuit race, amateur. At the end of three miles nineteen riders had en cut out and Phil Wright and P. Lawrence were left on the track riding at opposite sides. For two miles these gritty "kids" pedaled, but Lawrence had to give in finally and Wright won the eighty-two yards in 11 49 1-5. Halstead was third.

The unlimited pursuit match race between F. A. McFarland and W. G. Furman was the joke of the season in cycling. After the first three laps McFarland had to ride so slow that he nearly fell from his wheel and when the crowd began to leer he worked up steam, and from the opposite side of the track overhauled Furman in about a lap and a half. The distance of the race was one mile, six laps, and 150 yards. The time was 3:52 2-5.

The three-quarter-mile open professional was won by Hardy Downing by over a length from Hollister, the latter defeating Samuelson. West took a close fourth place from Devonevitch. The time was 1:30 3-5.

The three-mile open lap race amateur

1:20 3-5.

The three-mile open lap race amateur was a pretty race, in which a large field started without a mishap. There was a continual fight for lap money by the poorer riders, while the fast men remained under cover for the finish. With two laps to go, McCormack came out of the bunch from the rear and gradually forged to the front, winning by half a wheel from Giles. Wright beat Lawrence for third place, all four men crossing the tape close together in the fast time of 6:10 2-5.

The two-mile lap handicap professional the tape close together in the fast time of 6:10 2-5.

The two-mile lap handicap professional proved a runaway for the limit markera. The scratch men loafed during the early part of the race and finally Hollister sacrificed all his chances by trying to pull up the scratch men, but started too late to get in the show. Scahouse, Mitten, Schnell and Achorn exchanged pace in front and kept up a lively gait and crossed the tape at the finish in the order named. In this race Walker was fined $10 for flagging, while the general opinion was that DeMara was the guilty one, but as the two riders stated after the race they were not in there to pull up the scratch men and get nothing for their trouble. With Samuelson, Downing, and Wilcox hanging on, DeMara and Walker had no possible show to get in the money. The time of the event was $2.51 2-5.

Hardy Downing will ride Wilcox a five-mile motor-paced race Tuesday night for a purse of $1000, winner to take all. Since Wilcox defeated Samuelson his hat has failed to fit and Downing says he will try to stretch the band for him.
